Suncor Energy announces new branded marketing deal

Denver, Colorado (April 9, 2009) – Suncor Energy (U.S.A.) Inc. today announced that it has signed a branded marketing agreement with Shell Oil Products U.S. The agreement will allow Suncor and its network of branded marketers to sell Shell branded fuel in Colorado.

“We’re pleased to have signed this marketing agreement with Shell,” said Steve Douglas, vice president, Supply and Marketing. “Suncor views our branded sales channel as key to our success in Colorado. This agreement positions Suncor well to continue to provide quality fuels to our marketers and consumers under the Shell brand, the number one selling gasoline brand in America.”

Currently, Suncor has an agreement to market and sell fuel under the Phillips 66 brand in Colorado through July, 2013. During the transition and through the end of the Phillips 66 agreement, Suncor will be marketing and selling Phillips 66 and Shell branded fuel.

“Signing our agreement with Shell now gives Suncor ample time to transition our network of branded marketers to the Shell brand offering,” said Douglas.

Suncor owns 44 Phillips 66-branded retail locations throughout Colorado and supplies fuel to another 140 Phillips 66 sites through its branded marketer network.
